Dow - weekly

Today's Description

We saw a down move last week... For this week it is possible to see a little up to test 6800-6900 area at the beginning and then a down move to support zone in the picture

Dow - daily

Today's Description

Aspect an accumulation for some days between 6500 – 7000 points. We have an important resistance zone at 7150 – 7000 points. We should see a retreat from here tot 6700 – 6800 again. After that long again... If Dow manage to break it is possible to see the beginning of a little long trend

S&P 500 e-mini – 30 minutes

Today's Description

Trade signals with Stochastic (5,3,3) (for that see articles about technical analysis at <http://www.futureanalyzer.com/solutions.php>) following our scenario for today...

Today's detailed description

7150	12:15
7000	13:45 (some low here)
6900	15:12
6700

Commentary

We could see a test of 7000 points, then a little retreat to 6800 – 6900 area. And then possible a rise again at the end.
