F.A.Q.

Who are we?

We are a team of five friends each one passionate and devoted to studying and researching his favorite scientific domain.

What do we have to offer?

We offer you a clean-cut analysis and graphic pictures of worldwide known financial products. The stages and methods for creating such an analysis are complex. Step by step we created a system that encompasses the three ways of predicting stock market evolution. In this way nothing remains subjective or misunderstood.

The one using this analysis doesn't have to study astrology or technical analysis (although some basic information would be useful). The analysis is easy to understand. For the persons interested in more profound knowledge of this field we have gathered many useful materials to study.

We have decided to focus mainly on the US stock markets – Dow Jones Industrial Average (DOW) and EUR/USD.

What do we use?

We use technical analysis, fundamental analysis, astrology and a little bit of W.D. Gann's style.

What is the cost of the Dharmik Silver product? (<http://www.futureanalyzer.com/Dharmik%20Silver.php>)
